Little Kitty cat loved making snowmen. In fact, he loved making anything with snow. But there was one little problem. Little Kitty lived where it never ever snowed.

So Kitty tried making a rainman, with a lot of rain. But how could anyone make a man out of rain...it just dripped down. He tried making a pit shaped like a man on the ground and fill it with water, but before he could fill water in the pit, the water drained out! Oh! No! Whatever could he do now!

So he thought and thought and decided to build a sandman. So he piled up lots of sand, made it into a huge ball and placed it one on top of the other. But when he put twigs for arms and buttons for eyes, the sand hollowed!

Little Kitty cat's eyes were filled with tears. He felt really bad.

Kitty Cat Makes a 'Little Man'

Dr. Rohini Chintha, Hyderabad

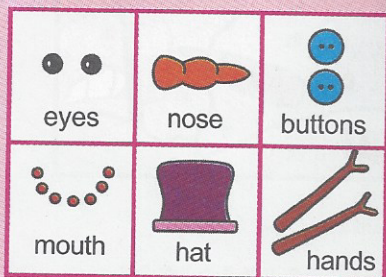

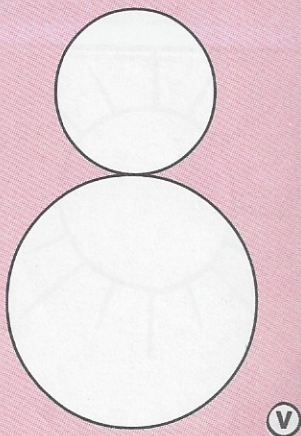

No snowman or rainman or even sandman! He couldn't build anything! Kitty felt terrible and started crying loud. Mom came to enquire why he was crying. Kitty told her everything and wailed even louder.

Mom too thought and thought. Then she had an idea! Mom had so many moulds in her ice-lolly making kit. She was sure there was a 'little man' mould too!

Kitty and Mom got out the ice-lolly making kit and checked.

Complete the snowman.

Draw the body parts and make the snowman.

And surprise! There was a 'Little man' mould too! In fact, there were three 'little man' moulds! Mom cleaned the moulds and got out some ice-cream sticks. Little Kitty and Mom made lemon juice, watermelon juice and Kitty's favourite orange juice. Then, Mom filled each mould with a little juice and placed an ice-cream stick at the bottom. Then Mom and Kitty put the ice-lolly tray in the refrigerator and waited till evening.

When it was time to check the moulds, little Kitty was excited. He opened one carefully and lo and behold! He had an ice-man ready! And a flavoured one too! Kitty beamed with delight. He and mom had wonderful Orange man, Lemon man and Melon man lollies that evening. Kitty was finally happy and he hugged mom tightly and thanked her. After all, she had helped him make three flavoured 'little men'! ●
