

What to Wear

Rohini Chintha, Hyderabad

In a forest there lived a hare, a mare and a bear. They were the best of friends, which was so rare. One day they wanted to go to a fair. But they did not know what to wear.

The bear looked in his cupboard and found a pair of blue jeans, but it had a very big tear. So he gave it to the hare, who sat on a chair, and patched the tear with a cloth so square.

The hare had a yellow pair of shoes, which he wanted to wear. The mare had nothing. So he decided to go bare. This gave the friends a scare. They gave the mare a fierce glare and said, "Don't you dare." The mare was sad and said he would stay back in their lair.

Then the bear went up the stair and looked in his cupboard for some clothes to share. Finally he found a jacket to spare, which he gave to the mare.

Now the bear had jeans to wear, the hare had a yellow pair of shoes and the mare had the spare, so they all set out happily to enjoy the fair. ●
